As people trained to be lawyers with LLBs, we at AuLP are of the opinion that law courts are for corrupt lawyers, corrupt judges and corrupt clients. We have evidence of examples of each; multiple examples. Unless you are corrupt, it is pointless to expect to obtain a ruling from a court, that gives you satisfaction. Honest non-lawyers, the Mums and Dads of Australia are viewed as “lambs to the slaughter” by most practicing lawyers and judges in Australia.

This Journal is part of the Hugh McVean topic which we have and are covering in the journals:

If Hugh McVean wishes to sue us, or Haig or any of us, we will have a right to defend ourselves, despite the extent to which a corrupt judge may try to silence us. Because Hughie [he reckons that he does not like that name as it reminds him of a duck – we say that is offensive to ducks] did some pretty low acts in such a public way, and his audience was encouraging him to continue, those in that audience will not be pleased with being called into court to give evidence, and having to either perjure themselves [a statement of “I can't remember” when they can IS PERJURY.”], and afraid that someone will come clean and make them look bad if not criminal, OR LOOK PRETTY LOW THEMSELVES. McVean was showing off to his hotel bozzar “mates” how “powerful” he was to be assaulting the younger disabled brother of his wife (with whom he was bragging around Townsville, that he was having sex, before they were married). The disabled brother of his wife had been invited to go water ski-ing with them. Instead of operating the boat properly so his brother-in-law could ski, McVean just dragged him through the water slowly so he would not rise out of the water but rather be given enemas as he sat in the water with the tip of his skis out of the water and his knees under his chin, as instructed by Hugh McVean. When his wife's disabled brother tried to stand up, he would fall off as it was so slow. Hugh repeated the exercise numerous times. Hugh's mate Barry Stanton, then an engineer in the Townsville City Council, thought the concept of water skiers experiencing enemas hilarious.

Since McVean had been criminal in Townsville prior to his moving to Nambour 30 years ago, and since, which proves, leopards do not change their spots, we know he committed forgery and Fraud in 1994 and Contempt of Court in 2005, we think it is highly probable that he had attempted to defraud others in Nambour in the past 30 years. If you would like to follow this through, we suggest you email us at Info@AustLawPublish.com /. [Don't threaten Hugh McVean that you will email us unless he satisfies your demands, as that would be extortion and could lead you into trouble.] One of the first things he did on moving to Nambour 30 years ago, was to find a dodgy solicitor. We will not name the firm as that would drive clientèle to them, as criminals stick together. Since criminals tend to associate with other criminals, people may be well advise to consider with suspicion any of McVean's associates.

In future editions of our journals, we will have a continuing topic of matters relevant to Hugh McVean, the criminal pharmacist of Nambour, and his form of dodgy solicitors, guilty of at least professional misconduct; [we have the documented proof of repeated examples of that]. If you have been cheated by ANYONE in Nambour where that person has used a Nambour solicitor, we are interested in following that. We are prepared to target other dodgy solicitors of Nambour. Most solicitors are dodgy, but most are not caught out – see [our expose of Terence Joseph Mellifont at <http://austlawpublic.com/20070716dossierof.terence.mellifont.pdf> for one who was, and look what the Beattie government has done for his wife.]
