told they are being relegated to the off-campus hovels. Their most unsavory and unsatisfactory living arrangements are forced upon them by Morgan. One student is living and trying to study in each of the three bedrooms. It is an understatement to say the six “residents” are less that ecstatic. They are enraged and targeting all their neighbours, especially their disabled neighbour. Morgan is using this to increase the attacks upon the disabled neighbour by BCC and the trustee of the disabled guy's home. That is the cause of much more aggravation of, and abuse towards, the disabled beneficiary resident in the adjoining house.

There are three houses in a triangle. The SJC hovel, the home of the disabled guy and a third house from which they chased [in late 2006], the previous owner, through the 2am disturbances by the outraged “SJC overflow”. Morgan has now secured that house from the fleeing neighbour who had had enough. Now all their efforts are directed at the disabled guy.

SJC is run and controlled by SJC Council [SJCC] which is a joint board of UQ [through UQ Senate (UQS)] and the Synod of the Brisbane Diocese of the Anglican Church of Australia [BDAC].

UQ is thus involved in these unsavory practices. UQ has tried to distance itself from this mess. The FORM of the structure of SJC is complicated with UQ introducing trusts to which no beneficiary is presently entitled. The substance to the arrangement is that UQ provided the land [on campus], for a nominal 10 shillings, but not the beneficial interest. There is no present entitlement. Only UQ stands to acquire the legal and beneficial ownership of the land of SJC.

SJC is not a legal entity. It is not a corporation. Both UQ and BDAC have an interest and each a partial control of SJC subject to the BDAC performing according to the “Schedule of Trusts”. UQ provided the land and has the controlling/upper hand should anything go awry.

These off campus hovels has been very “profitable” for SJC and Morgan. With the accommodation charge for each student of $300 pw, this makes a “rent” for each house of $1,800 pw. Very profitable? The students are most upset as are their parents. They feel grossly ripped off. There is a very important consideration of SAFETY and SECURITY. On campus, there is a substantial security presence. Security patrol the campus plus it is under constant CCTV surveillance. This does not happen in the off campus hovels.

Both BDAC, and importantly for the Alumni of UQ, UQ itself, are leaving themselves open to great legal claims. This is especially topical in the wake of the Virginia Tech University massacre in the US. That would be unlikely to happen on SLC of UQ due to the security presence. It could well happen off campus. Now, SJC has TWO adjoining hovels without any security for vulnerable students.

In these pages in future editions, we will canvas Alumni of UQ. These will include Quentin Bryce. She was the Queensland Director [and ran the Queensland office], of the Australian Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission [HREOC] (goolge should index that), and Sex Discrimination Commissioner.

She is 'notable' not for anything that she has done [well not publicly at least] but for the "positions she has been given". [Maybe there is a reason for that?] Is it as per the Brisbane Barrister Boasting "BULLSHIT", who admitted defrauding the Commonwealth of Australia and The University of Queensland, through his having contacts? Was it a matter of not what they knew, [or could do], but whom they [independently] knew, that was important? We are not passing comment on whether QB has done anything illegal, [or anything at all for that matter], at this stage. We may in the future, so watch this space. That Brisbane barrister who admitted defrauding UQ, was covered in our Australian Legal Profession Law Journal. ISSN: 1321-7496 issue #200701 published on 26 March, 2007. We did not name him. We know that UQ has accessed that journal online, but UQ seems to be not concerned that UQ permitted a previous student to defraud UQ.

Other Alumni to be considered include Dale Spender, Ted Brown, Jeffery Ernest John Spender, Patsy Mary Wolfe, [now Chief Judge DC], Margaret White, Dr Michael White, Janine Schmidt and Prof. Geoffrey deQ. Walker.

This Journal is not a publicity organ for UQ. We are very much independent of UQ. We will tell it like it is, as we do with all of our other publications.
